Yesterday's Report

By Alyssa Nightingale

Wednesday marked the first official Opening Day of the 62nd FIABCI World Congress in Cyprus. The day began with a Press Conference where members of the media were provided an overview of the International Real Estate Federation, FIABCI and the 2011 FIABCI World Congress program along with a question-and-answer session with FIABCI World President Enrico Campagnoli; FIABCI President Elect Alexander Romanenko as well as President of the FIABCI World Congress 62 Organizing Committee Dinos Michaelides.

Following the Press Conference, Congress participants were officially welcomed to the event with an Opening Ceremony during which FIABCI Past World President Lawrence McCabe served as Master of Ceremonies. FIABCI World President Enrico Campagnoli discussed the importance of the Congress as well as what is planned for the organization and highlighted a few of FIABCI's accomplishments during the past year.

FIABCI World President Enrico Campagnoli provided several members a Medal of Honor to recognize each of them for their individual and ongoing support of the organization. The Welcome Ceremony concluded with a performance by Cypriot dancers – a taste of the type of entertainment which participants will experience throughout the FIABCI World Congress.

In addition to the day's opening festivities, the World Congress in Cyprus also offered informative forums for FIABCI members where several world-renowned expert business leaders shared presentations.

In addition to the forums, FIABCI also held educational modules which included presentations from real estate technology expert John Mayfield titled "Technology Revolutionizing the Real Estate Business." Mayfield provided participants with an abundance of free technology to build their businesses to be more efficient. The second educational program was led by Thijs Stoffer, CEO of the International Consortium of Real Estate Associations (ICREA), who presented REA," provided all FIABCI members in attendance with FIABCI members with a unique resource. His presentation titled "Trans-National Referral Certificate Program – IC the useful "TRC" designation.

During the Business Lunch, FIABCI participants were addressed by Cyprus Ministry of Foreign Affairs Counselor of the Cyprus Question and the Division of the island by Turkey, Mr. Evangelos Savva.
